"RAGGED MATT."

BARNEY MULLELLY.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

Moderato.

1. I'm called "Ragged Matt," for my clothes and my hat, They are ragged, they are tattered, and torn; ... "Evening
 2. My mother fell sick and was forced to her bed, With sorrow, I'd nearly gone wild, ... No

"News" is my friend, it has stuck to the end, When poverty's hour was most known, When money or friends my poor Mother did weep, Saying, "What shall we do, my dear child?" At small child, I had a very bad "Dad," Bad I mean in his way, ... Every early day I started a way to Earn some money for bread! ... When re-dollar and cent, For liquor was spent, Till Death came and took him one day, ... turned to my home, It's then I did moan, For there lay my poor mother dead, ...

Refrain.

"Eve-ning News!" "Eve-ning News!" "Eve-ning News!" I would cry,..... While roam-ing the street, I did not look neat, But I hustled for mother and I.....

CHORUS AD LIB.

"Evening News!" "Evening News!" "Evening News!" I would cry,.... While roaming the street, I did not look neat, But I hustled for mother and I.....

did not look neat, But I hustled for mother and I.....

did not look neat, But I hustled for mother and I.....
